

You're Mine, My Bride

Words & Music by Nancy Carter

©2003

VERSE 1 You want a story, a sweet romance
How love can conquer all
You've filled your head with such nonsense
Now come and let Me fill your heart

CHORUS Cause you're Mine, My bride, My love
My blood has washed you clean
You're Mine, My bride, you're Mine
How precious you are to Me

VERSE 2 I know you've sinned, I know your shame
I know you better than you know yourself
But listen closely, come near to Me
Remember the cross has set you free

CHORUS

VERSE 3 I'm very jealous for your love for Me
Oh, My bride, keep your eyes on Me
I paid the price to set you free
My life was worth the cost you see

BRIDGE Now you're free to love Me
Now you're free to be My bride
There is no love I withhold from you
You're Mine, you're Mine My bride

VERSE 4 If you'd just see into My heart
You'd find your name on the deepest part
Written there with My own hand
My bride, My love, My all